1. A male bear is called a ______, a female bear is called a ______, and a baby bear is called a ______.

2. With their long, powerful legs, deer can jump over a ______ tall person.

3. Although most of raccoon’s senses are heightened, their senses of ______ and ______ are less developed.

4. Bald eagles can ______, using their wings. They fly between ______ mph, too!

5. Beavers close their ______ and ______ valves close when they are under the water.