

KID'S

Tulip Tree

What Am I?

- I start life as an egg laid on a very special plant.
- I change into a larva and become an "eating machine".
- I change again into a chrysalis and then I really change.
- At least I hatch and become an adult and start laying eggs all over again.

BUTTERFLY

What Am I?

- I am a state symbol.
- I lay my eggs on plants such as Sweet Bay, Bassafras, Prickly Ash, Tulip Trees and Spicebush.
- I am mostly black with large whitish blue spots. I have a large round spot of orangy-red on the inner edge of each hind wing. I also have two rows of orange or red dots on the lower surface of the hind wings.
